

The 11th International Willa Cather Seminar

Willa Cather: A Writer's Worlds

June 24-July 1, 2007

Housing and Meal Plan Specifications

The Seminar will begin in Paris on Sunday, June 24th in Paris. Participants need to make their own hotel arrangements and look after their own meals for the Paris portion of the Seminar. We will be meeting in the Latin Quarter, so locations near the CLUNY Museum or the Sorbonne Nouvelle will be most convenient.

On Tuesday, June 26th, the group will travel by train and bus to the Abbey St-Michel-de-Frigolet; it is located near Tarascon, midway between Avignon and Arles. For this portion of the Seminar, the Directors will receive and confirm on-site accommodation reservations on a first-come, first-serve basis; housing at the Abbey is limited.

Housing: Two types of housing are available at the Abbey: conventional hotel accommodation (mostly double occupancy) and, within the religious community, more austere dormitory-style accommodation with bathrooms down a hall. Of the latter, some rooms contain a double-bed only, some contain a double-bed and a single; there are also rooms that will sleep four persons bunk-bed style and another that will sleep six in the same fashion. In all cases, participants should indicate the names of those with whom they wish to share. If need be, we will also be willing to pair people up so that the space is fully used. The fee covers the five nights we will be at the Abbey.

Meals: A meal plan of five breakfasts, four lunches, and four dinners is available, either in connection with housing or on its own for those who do not stay at the Abbey but attend the Seminar. (On June 27th the group will be on its own for dinner in Avignon.)

Prices:

Hotel (per person, double occupancy) and Meal Plan:	$400 or E325
Community (per person, double or multiple occupancy) and Meal Plan:	$300 or E240
Meal Plan Alone (per person):	$200 or E160

Reservations:

To confirm a room and meal plan, or a meal plan alone, we require a $150 (E120) deposit to make and hold the reservation. The full balance is due by May 1, 2007.
