

Paris Hotel Information

The following hotels are located on the Left Bank in the 5th, 6th, and 7th arrondissements. (Most Paris seminar activities will be in the 5th and 7th arrondissements, with a walking tour across the Seine to the Marais district in the 4th arrondissement.) All hotels are within walking distance or a short metro ride (either direct or with one change—included in the ticket price) to the Sorbonne, Cluny, Pantheon, etc. This list is in no way a recommendation; it is merely to help you find accommodations, especially if you're not familiar with the city. Prices listed are in euros for 2005 and represent lowest single room price and highest double room price. The country code for calling France is 33.

Breakfast is available at all of the above for about 8 to 12 euros. For more options I'd suggest checking Michelin's Paris 2005 (or, if available, 2006) guide to hotels and restaurants. I'd also suggest that you firm up accommodations earlier rather than later, since late June is the height of the tourist season in France. Also, if you are not familiar with Paris, pick up Streetwise Paris, a handy foldout map and metro guide available in the travel section of most bookstores for $7.95.
